Builders Vote To Continue Present Monthly Sessions

Members of the Richmond Builders Exchange last night voted to continue the present plan of a monthly social banquet at the last social night of the year held in the exchange.

Approximately 100 members of the exchange attended the dinner which was served by the Cathleen Hotel. Fall flowers and gifts decorated the tables.

When E. H. Higgins, president of the exchange, called for a vote on the continuance of the monthly socials, the members voted for the plan with the amendment that one-half hour of the session be devoted to business affairs of the organization.

There will be no meeting of the exchange in December, owing to the holidays, but the committee in charge of the dinner last night was reappointed to make plans for a ladies night celebration the place and date to be decided upon by them.

P. M. Sanford, president of the California State Builders exchange made a report on a meeting held in Fresno recently and declared that the city is looking forward to the meeting of the Negotiations Finished by Signing Of Two Doheny Chiefs

The three-party lease to city-owned property near Municipal Wharf No. 1, has been signed by the city, the Parr Terminal Corporation and the Petroleum Securities company, removing the last obstacle in the location of the $2,000,000 oil plant in Richmond.

TERMS EXPLAINED
By the terms of the lease, the Petroleum Securities company for a consideration of $1000 per month, leases three and one-half acres of the city's property on the outer harbor for a term of ten years, renewable for five year periods up to fifty years.

Highway Signs Will Advertise Features Here

Signs advertising Richmond will today be placed along the highway from Martinez and the Carquinez bridge to this city by the local Chamber of Commerce.

Forty signs informing motorists of the advantages to be found here and recounting the industries, schools, civic and social institutions of the city, will be placed at advantageous points along the route.

PAULSEN IN CHARGE
The publicity committee of the local organization of which A. L. Paulsen is chairman will be in charge of the work. The signs received the approval of the members at a recent meeting after which the committee was appointed to arrange for securing the signs and deciding upon the message to be carried upon them.

Each sign will contain a different message and is expected to aid in directing traffic through Richmond.

TELLS ADVANTAGES
"Many persons have complained in the past that motorists have been unable to know when they had arrived near Richmond and few of them know of our activities," said E. M. Sanford, president of the chamber last night.

The signs, attractively designed, will call attention to our advantages and will aid in directing traffic through Richmond to the ferries.

The cost of the work is estimated at approximately $500 and is being borne by the Chamber of Commerce. Each sign will be approximately five feet square.

Esola's car was struck at the left rear wheel, turning the car completely around and then overturning it. Esola escaped unscathed. His car was badly wrecked, the rear wheel broken off and the frame-work crushed. Goncalves' machine was badly wrecked also.

The new position calls for a salary of $200 per month and was created at the time the budget for 1927-1928 was prepared. The electrical inspection heretofore has been handled by City Building Inspector A. J. Hurley, but the press of duties in that office have necessitated the separation of the work.

All applicants must be residents of Richmond and 25 years of age or over, according to McVittie.

PYTHIAN CHIEF TO PAY VISIT

Plans for the Page Rank class to be conferred in Oakland during the official visit of Supreme Chancellor Witte of Milwaukee, December 12, were discussed at the county district convention of Knights of Pythias held in Pittsburg Wednesday night and attended by members of Richmond lodge No. 13.

Twenty candidates for the class from Contra Costa county will be initiated at this time. Reports of the committee on the monthly publication to be distributed to lodges in the county were made at the meeting at which the Golden Key lodge No. 26 of Pittsburg was host. This lodge won the Grand Chancellor's cup, having the largest attendance present at the convention.

The next district convention will be held in Martinez on the night of December 20 and the lodge is planning to attend. A banquet was served at the close of the meeting by the hosts.

A large radio receiving set will be installed in the foyer of the Mechanics bank by Carl Richards so that the public can "listen in" on the Big Game between California and Stanford tomorrow afternoon. Seats will be provided for the comfort of those attending.

TO ADD STORY

Plans and estimates for the addition of a second story to the building at the southwest corner of Macdonald avenue and Twelfth street, are being prepared for the owner, J. P. Hassler, according to an announcement made yesterday. The cost of the proposed work has not been announced.

Labor Outlook For Industries Is Optimistic

That Richmond is well supplied with labor to meet its industrial needs, and that industries in general are operating on a normal basis, is shown by a survey of the employment conditions for the state made by the United States Department of Labor. Building conditions in the city are also shown to be on the boom, and promise to continue throughout the winter.

L. C. Dexter, secretary of the Richmond Builders' Exchange, last night issued an appeal to industrial plants and others in need of the services of skilled and unskilled laborers to phone or call at the exchange as men are available, he declared.

"There is a slight increase of unemployment at present," said Dexter, "but conditions here are not as serious as in other cities in the bay district. We are anxious to take care of our local men in need of employment. The men have grown to use the exchange as a depot for seeking work and at present we can supply skilled mechanics and laborers as well as unskilled men."

The report points out that a number of large buildings are under construction, such as apartment houses and industrial plants. Development work includes immediate building on a large scale by the Petroleum Securities company at its Richmond harbor site, the rapid work made in the Fossil site fill, construction well advanced on the new First Baptist church, and the two new Richmond schools, and plans laid for building of the plant of Western Industries company in Stege, a modern hotel by Leo Persico, the new Christian Science church, and the Richmond Commercial and Savings Bank.

Preparations for a Christmas party to be given by the Bell social club, No. 851, were made last night by the club, meeting at Red Men hall. The following committee will have charge of the party: Norman Cullen, Pittsburg, chairman; E. G. Quinn, Hayward; Edward Frank, Hayward; E. Williams, Martinez; and Harry Burroughs, Crockett. After the meeting last night a crab supper was served by J. A. Larison.

Bengley has now laid away his uniform and is appearing in the conventional suit of the "plain clothes man."

STRUCTURE TO GO UP ON OLD CHURCH SITE

Growth Of Local Church Responsible For Need Of Larger Building

Construction of a new Christian Science Church in Richmond to cost from $30,000 to $35,000 will be begun as soon as plans can be drafted for the structure, it was learned yesterday.

The edifice will occupy the site of the present church at Twelfth street and Nevin avenue which will be removed to permit building of the new place of worship.

MODERN EDIFICE

It is said that the church will be of classic Renaissance architecture, and will embody the latest in ecclesiastical features. Christian Scientists here are anxious that the structure be a credit to the many buildings which are making Richmond one of the beauty spots of the bay district.

The growth of membership in the local church is said to be responsible for the decision to build a larger structure.

Construction will be started immediately after plans are accepted by the congregation.

BUILD CRUISERS

The United States would be pursuing no empty "dogma" if it should now build as many 10,000-ton cruisers as are needed to produce total tonnage equality. It would be sticking to the treaty in letter and in spirit. Great Britain reserves the right to determine her own cruiser requirements. We have a similar right. Our sea-going commerce justifies equalization in the broadest sense. Congress is at liberty to restore parity with Great Britain and Japan, without incurring the reproaching of competitive building. The competitive building has been elsewhere. If we are to live up to the Washington Treaty, to the parity theory which is the basis of our whole naval policy, to our defensive and commercial protection needs, we should first of all re-establish this treaty cruiser ratio. The least that congress and administration should aim at now is a program giving us an equality by 1931 in cruisers carrying eight-inch rifles.—New York Herald-Tribune.

President Hindenberg is still arguing about the war guilt. He ought to be good enough as a politician to know that Germany became the guilty party when she lost the war. The only way she could have made the allies guilty of starting the war would have been to defeat them.

The French want another big loan from America and say that they need the money for road building and repair. There may be some merit in this if they can show that the American tourists are wearing out the highways.

The fact that a number of democratic leaders are insisting on cutting taxes below what the treasury experts call the danger point may mean that the democrats don't expect to have to pay the running expenses of the government even after next year.

We now have skinless frankfurters, seedless oranges and ginless gin. We are hoping that next somebody will produce some leafless spinach and rootless carrots.

The League of Nations has adopted a resolution outlawing wars of aggression. If they'll make it retroactive everything will be lovely.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Wilda Bennett, the musical comedy star, was sued for a dental bill of $5 for the filling of her horse's tooth. Doubtless she is glad she didn't have a pet elephant.

Some fellows carry a gun in their hip pocket and others carry a pint of synthetic gin, and it's a toss up as to which is the deadlier.

How To Earn Money!

Since Christmas is so near, let me remind you that the holiday season offers unusual opportunities for those who want part time work. All the large department stores employ extra people for just this season and the post office can use extra boys for carrying packages and sorting mail. Even people who can manage fairly well during the year on the salaries they have, find that Christmas means a heavy strain on the pocketbook that makes it a time of worry. Christmas ought to be the most joyous season of the year and there is no reason why it should not be since you have the chance to earn this extra money.

Will you please inform me if the Women's Exchange will accept my home canned fruit. I have some lovely fruit and wish to dispose of it. If the Women's Exchange does not accept it, would you please tell me where I could sell it. Do you think 75c would be too much to charge on account of buying the fruit, the cans, sugar and my labor?

The only way to find out if the Women's Exchange will accept your fruit is to send them a sample. They will decide and will probably advise you as to the price, too. Seventy-five cents seems to me to be quite cheap—if they are quart jars—in fact, I think you might charge more when you have established a trade. If the Exchange does not accept it, you ought to try to build up a trade in your neighborhood by a house to house canvass, or by asking some of the stores near you to display and sell it on a commission basis.

Will you give me some information as to how to send manuscripts to editors. If typewritten, what spacing do you use, etc. I would greatly appreciate any help you could give me.—M. M.

Manuscripts must be typewritten. The thousands and thousands of manuscripts that editors receive every year could never be read if they were written by hand. And they must be nicely typed. Do not tie the pages with ribbons, but see to it that the typing is clear, that there is a wide margin at the left and a narrow one at the right, that the punctuation and spelling are good. You can use either single or double spacing, but it is easier to read the latter. Never fasten the pages too tightly together—use clips if you like, but make it possible to handle pages singly. If it is a book, it is a good plan to clip the pages of each chapter together, and put the whole in a large envelope. Look up the Manuscript Guide, on reference in any library, for the different types of stories all the magazines use, or some of the literary agents might be able to help you. And don't be discouraged if your work comes back again and again; try to make it better, and keep on trying until you win out.

I have an idea in mind for a new type of pajamas for men. Where would you advise me to market this idea? E. M. N.

Make a working model or a clear drawing of the different style pajamas you have in mind, and then write to the different big companies and ask them if they will let you prove the practical value of your idea. You can ask the names of the manufacturers at any department store. You need not be afraid of showing them your idea. The large companies are honorable, and if they like your model they will see that you get a fair part of the profit. The men ought to welcome this—you get so little chance for variety in your clothes, poor things.

What Your FACE TELLS

©c.1927- by Betty Morrison PSYD.

How do you shake hands? A handshake is the expression of personality. In a momentary squeeze of the hand, much of the natural feeling of the individual flows through the fingers.

Some persons have the limp clasp; others have the vigorous grip, and between these two extremes is this warm, hearty clasp, which inspires confidence and affection.

Who can ever forget the feeling conveyed through the hand of a farewell forever clasp. The brother, a square-minded man.

clasp that tells so much when words fail.

This hearty grasp of the hand indicates warmth and executive-ness and strength of character.

This is the grasp of persons with big-hearted, generous minds. It is quite different from the frigid, limp touching of the fingers which are an outward manifestation of a cringing, disloyal soul.

The friendly pressure of this handshake speeds up the circulation of the blood, invigorates both mind and body and makes one arrange for the milk diet, a largely raw food one of fruits, vegetables, nuts, milk and milk products is used.

VIGOROUS HEALTH

EMOTIONAL EATING: We all hear a lot about emotional eating, but probably none of you ever thought of emotional eating. Nevertheless, the emotions do have an important bearing upon the manner in which digestion and assimilation are performed. You may eat the right foods in the proper amounts and live rightly in most other respects, but if you do not properly control your emotions while eating you will not be healthy.

It is a well known fact that all grouches have indigestion. Families who have a habit of quarreling with each other and airing all their grievances at the table are never healthy, but they always wonder why. They do not seem to understand that destructive emotions not only poison the system to themselves, but prevent the proper digestion and assimilation of the food.

It is not considered polite to smack the lips when eating or to make a variety of noises while taking soup, but a person who does these things is usually enjoying his food and eating with a proper mental attitude. He may be considered polite but he is more likely to be healthy. Of course it is not necessary to give audible expression to one's enjoyment, but when eating we should concentrate upon the business in hand, realizing that we are taking that which is to become a part of ourselves and that enjoyment of the food, the stimulation of pleasant company and the exhilaration of happy thoughts will greatly increase the benefit received. The maxim—"Eat, drink and be merry"—if properly controlled, isn't a bad one to follow.

Three weeks ago a friend of mine was bothered with swelling of the ankles. This went down, but now the knees are swollen. He seems all right in other ways. What would you advise.

A definite diagnosis could only be made after personal examination but this would appear to be arthritis. Assuming this to be the case, the usual treatment by natural methods would be a grapefruit diet for about seven days, followed by a largely raw fruit diet together with cold packs to the affected joints, a sweat bath twice a week and deep breathing of fresh air. Rest of the affected parts is observed until the swelling has disappeared.

I have had neurasthenia a year. What would you advise me to do?

Get busy and get rid of it. Neurasthenia is no fun, and a year is plenty long enough to have it. Evidently you have not been using the right measures or you would have largely, if not entirely, recovered by now. This condition requires a combination of mental and physical treatment. The exact regimen depends on individual conditions, but repeated short orange diets, with the milk diet between, together with graduated exercise, deep breathing and autosuggestion, sun baths, cool baths, and plenty of sleep are generally indicated. If unable to arrange for the milk diet, a largely raw food one of fruits, vegetables, nuts, milk and milk products is used.

YOUR BIRTHDAY

NOVEMBER 17

This is the birthday of Mme. Amelia Galli-Curci and of Miss Ethel Clayton, the well-known motion picture actress. Miss Clayton was born at Champaign, Ill., when the Sun was merging his rays with those of Mercury in Scorpio and when the Moon was with Jupiter and Mars in Aquarius, in trine both to Neptune and Uranus. This is a very fortunate arrangement of the planets and, Neptune being the ruler of the screen, it is not at all surprising that Miss Clayton has won distinction in the motion pictures.

I have already touched upon the danger of prejudice arising from the intense likes and dislikes of Scorpio. In the more intimate relationships of life, such instinctive feelings should be regarded as silent warnings. It is unlikely that permanent and close friendships can be built up when our first reaction has been antagonistic.

Perhaps with some ulterior motive in view we may force such a friendship, but the time will probably come when circumstances will prove that our first instinctive reaction was correct. It is, of course, only when such reactions are quite instinctive and definite that they should be permitted to influence us, and if during the formative period of childhood, we have been carefully taught consideration for others, we shall be able to distinguish between the real warning, when it comes, and the momentary clash of temperaments.

Revenge is another dangerous thought for Scorpio. In this, as in all other matters, the men and women of Scorpio are inclined to run to extremes. Some of them will wait years to get their revenge. They do not realize that by harboring such thoughts they are laying up more and more trouble for themselves.

UNCHANGED BY CENTURIES

Although the dictates of fashion and convenience have changed most American arts and crafts from generation to generation, the handicraft of the Navajo Indians has undergone little change for hundreds of years. Methods used centuries ago are still employed in making blankets and rugs.

They are woven principally by the squaws of the tribe. Their looms are primitive affairs, usually consisting of two stout poles fixed between two trees. This simple device serves as a loom for the most intricate weavings. They use only the purest wool, which is sheared from the backs of the sheep by hand.

The vivid colors are obtained by a process familiar only to themselves.

PLANTAIN GOOD

For millions of people in the tropics the banana and its near relative, the plantain, constitute the chief source of food for millions of people in place of potatoes and the cereals, such as wheat, rye and barley in the food regions of the temperate zone. Authorities estimate that the actual amount of food material produced per acre in the cultivation of bananas exceeds that of wheat or any other crop. The banana therefore is an important factor in the solution of the great economic problem of supplying the rapidly increasing world with a staple food, obtainable at all seasons and at low cost.

"What are you — doing with us?" Terry managed to get out before he was securely silenced again.

"Ho, ha," chorled Jimmie. The Texas Kid joined in. "That's a good 'un; but, as the dame 'ere would say, it's a secret!" and again they laughed uproariously.

For such an incident to take place on the streets without interference from the police did not speak well for San Francisco. But it was proven later that the police were under the jurisdiction of such bosses as Buckwell. They knew better than to interfere with affairs that would probably bring the ill will of local politicians and mean the loss of their jobs.

Taking out two large squares of silk, Jimmie and the Texas Kid proceeded to roll them into long bandages.

"It's a shame to cover them pretty eyes," commented Jimmie, "but orders is orders, and we've most come to where we're going."

Without further ado Dolores was blindfolded. Immediately she was placed in a great disturbance in the carriage.

Terry was strenuously objecting to the additional punishment. He lashed around with his body, twisting and turning against the Texas Kid who held him.

"Cut it—cut it!" said Jimmie, nursing a painful bruise that Terry had inflicted on his face with a blow from handcuffed fists.

Terry struggled only increased. "All right, then maybe this'll calm yer," and Jimmie tapped him on the head with a pocket billy.

"Dat'll hold 'im fer awhile. De girls de goods de boss wants, anyhow," observed the Texas Kid.

Dolores heard, and her anxiety increased. She could not even reach Terry. She sobbed inwardly as she wondered what was going to become of them and if Terry was badly hurt.

Presently she was conscious of the carriage stopping and thought it strange that not a word was spoken by either of the thugs or the driver. She sobbed anew when she could tell from the sounds that two of the men were carrying Terry. "He can't walk! Is he dead? What will they do with him?" she wondered.

In absolute silence she was guided by the arm through a narrow doorway. She could tell it was narrow because she felt her long skirts swish against the sides as she was pushed through. She and her guide stopped for several minutes, and when they continued she could not hear any sounds of Terry and the men who were carrying him. Apparently they had gone by a different way. With her heart almost bursting from worry and fear Dolores stumbled along. She could neither see, speak nor use her hands, and it was terrifying to go up and down stairways, along narrow halls and stand in the mysterious blackness with bandaged eyes to wait while the doors were opened in response to her guide's weird tapings.

Dolores did not know that she was in the underground passages leading to Chris Buckwell's home.

After what seemed to her an eternity she found that they were walking on heavily carpeted floors and up a long flight of carpeted stairs.

"Here ye are," commented the Texas Kid, untying her bandage. "Some digkings, ain't they?" he observed as Dolores looked about her in fear and surprise.

It was an ornate chamber of elaborate and terrifying design. There were heavily embroidered silk window draperies. The walls were hand painted with dragons. The floor highly waxed with many handsome Chinese rugs scattered about. Lights on the side walls and ceiling gleamed from the mouths and eyes of great metal dragons. The furniture was black ebony and real lacquer. It was handsome, but suitable only for exhibition purposes. Dolores felt more alone and frightened than ever. She knew that she was in the home of a Chinaman, and her blood turned off into a cold shiver.

"I'll take de bracelets wid me," observed the Kid, suiting action to words; then he continued, "if ye want somethin' de boss says ye're to ring de bell, and without even a backward glance he went out and closed the door.

Dolores' heart sank when she heard the key turned and withdrawn. Rushing to a window, she pushed aside the draperies and found the blind well rugs scattered about. Lights on the side walls and ceiling gleamed from the mouths and eyes of great metal dragons. The furniture was black ebony and real lacquer. School nurse says all girls should know this

TALKING to a roomful of high school girls on personal hygiene, an experienced district nurse said: "One of the basic rules of health for girls is to keep the system functioning naturally at all times. Normal exercise and diet habits should be encouraged. But when necessary there's no harm in taking nujol, since it works mechanically and can't disturb the normal functions of any organ of the body. Particularly with girls, there are times when nujol should always be taken. Take a spoonful every night for a few days. It's a thoroughly safe and harmless method. It won't cause distress or gas pains or griping. Nujol is different from any other substance. It contains no drugs or medicine. It can be taken safely no matter how you are feeling because it is so pure and harmless, and works so easily. Every woman should keep a bottle on hand. Every druggist has this remarkable substance. ZENITH
LONG DISTANCE RADIO
Why does not Zenith build a radio receiver to sell for less than $100.00? Zenith has the laboratory, the engineers, the organization and the financial resources to build any kind of radio. Then why not go below the $100.00 price? The answer is that the Zenith standard of quality cannot be built into a receiver of lower price. Zenith will not put its name to a receiver that is not highly selective, powerful, faithful to the entire tone scale and wrought with surpassing skill and durability. Performance comes first in Zenith—there is no compromise. The 6-tube set has six working tubes instead of five working tubes and one balancing tube. Instead of three condensers the 6-tube set has four—the 8 and 10-tube sets have five and six condensers respectively. In every detail the same exacting standards are carried out. RICHARD DIX NEW THRILLER AT CALIFORNIA

Authenticity is an outstanding characteristic of Richard Dix' new Paramount starring picture "Shanghai Bound" which will be shown at the California Theatre today and tomorrow.

The Chinese background is faithfully represented. The situations in the thrilling story are true to present day life in China. "Shanghai Bound" contains scenes which some people may say, could not happen in modern times. There are hand to hand fights between Dix and Hay S. Harris. For several months O'Reilly, an adventurer, soldier and writer, was a member of the International Police Force at Shanghai, from where his duties took him up and down the Yangtze River, the locale of the picture. Then he became drill master for the Chinese Imperial Army, returning several years ago to America to write of his exciting experiences.

The authority for this statement is Edward S. O'Reilly, the author of "Shanghai Bound" an original screen story adapted by John Goodrich and Hay S. Harris. For several months O'Reilly, an adventurer, soldier and writer, was a member of the International Police Force at Shanghai, from where his duties took him up and down the Yangtze River, the locale of the picture. Then he became drill master for the Chinese Imperial Army, returning several years ago to America to write of his exciting experiences.

His observations, set down in the scenario of "Shanghai Bound" were verified during production by Tom Gubbins, known as the "King of Los Angeles Chinatown" who acted as technical advisor. Gubbins spent many years in China before he returned to this country to help producers make Chinese pictures.

Moreover, there was much help given Dix and Director Luther Reed by Chinese themselves. Shou Komet, Japanese actor, who has travelled in China. More than 150 Chinese played in the fight scenes. STIRRING DAYS OF 1776 SHOWN AT RICHMOND

Stirring days of the French and Indian War, when the English colonies were menaced by the French and their naked savage allies, form the colorful background to a romantic love affair in "Winners of the Wilderness", coming today to the Richmond Theatre.

The story is an exquisite blend of history and romance, and stars Tim McCoy, with Joan Crawford, noted Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer featured player, who appears in the role of the lovely daughter of the commandant of Fort Duquesne at the time of Braddeck's defeat.

The cast of characters is composed of the history makers of that period and include: George Washington, as young major of militia in the service of the British crown; Captains Gage and Gates, the former a British General during the American revolution, and the latter destined to become a famous American revolutionary patriot of Bunker Hill and Saratoga.

Other historical characters in the picture are: General Braddeck, whose pigheadedness caused the massacre of nine hundred soldiers of his command of thirteen hundred; the French Governor of Canada and the English Governor of the colony of Virginia.

The picture was directed by W. S. Van Dyke.

Other film features include the third thrilling chapter of "The Golden Stallion", starring Lefty Flynn; and "Felix Wise Guise", a Felix the Cat cartoon comedy.

CITY TO DREDGE

The city agrees to dredge the basin, and channel leading into the basin and if unable to carry out this program, the work will be done by the company with the expense deducted from the monthly rentals.

Owing to the expense to which the company will be placed in filling in and cleaning around the outer harbor, the rentals will not start until March 1, 1928. A wharf approximately 600 feet in length and with a width of 100 feet will be constructed by the company east of Municipal Wharf No. 1 and at right angles to it. The company by the terms of the lease is absolved from paying tolls to the city or the Parr interests on cargo loaded or unloaded at their wharf.

The Doheny interests have secured 216 acres on the Potrero on the outer harbor of Richmond where they will construct their plant costing approximately $2,000,000 and giving employment to 300 persons.

Balanced Foods Make For Healthy And Beautiful Skin

By LADY BEATRICE GREY

How many times have I seen a lily-white complexion marred by the disfiguring blemishes called "white-heads." How to avoid blackheads is contained in the complex bible of what every girl should know about her skin.

Whiteheads are more tenacious and just as serious a blemish. In reality, they come from the same cause. But whiteheads seem to be more rugged and more difficult to dispel.

A blackhead, as everybody knows, is when a bit of impurity remains embedded in one of the pores of the skin. Often this impurity causes a slight infection and a blackhead, if neglected, will become a serious pimple.

Now a whitehead is an impurity which is covered by a thin layer of skin. The basic cause and treatment is the same in the case of blackheads and whiteheads.

An improper diet, containing too many rich foods, pastries, fried meats, and rich gravies and sauce contributes to the condition. Inadequate elimination is the second factor. When the body cannot rid itself of the impurities caused by this highly indigestible food, the blood becomes laden with impurities which must find a way to escape.

Curb your appetite and eat plenty of rough grained and whole wheat breads. Fresh fruits and vegetables—eaten raw preferably—a minimum amount of meat and if possible none at all during the corrective period will contribute to the bringing of your system to normalcy.

Get plenty of good brisk exercise out in the open air, breathing deeply of the health-giving ozone. Cultivate immaculate cleanliness of personal habits.

This should prevent the occurrence of further whiteheads.

However, the skin must be rid of those which have already appeared. This is a ticklish process at best and must be done with the maximum of care. The thin skin covering must be pricked to permit the impurities to escape. Use a needle which has been sterilized by placing the point over a burning match. Wipe the point off with a bit of sterilized gauze. Then, placing a fold of the gauze between the fingertips, prick the top skin and press the impurities from the pocket.

Be careful that your fingers do not bruise the skin.

Liver Doesn't Hurt but Watch Out

The dangerous thing about liver trouble is that it may be present and not recognized as such. No pain probably in the vicinity of the liver, but mysterious sick headaches, dizzy spells, kidney disturbances and probably heart palpitation and high blood pressure. No organ will bear closer watching than the liver. It's the liver's important job to keep the blood clean of the poisons formed in food waste. Let the liver become sluggish, as it frequently does under the strain of modern living, and the whole system becomes toxic, which weakens stomach, kidneys and heart. The liver occasionally needs a little help, and there's nothing better for this, as medical men know, than a little ox gall. Ox gall is a remarkable natural stimulant for the human liver, promoting its normal, active functioning. Dioxol tablets are genuine ox gall in dainty and tasteless form, each tablet representing 10 drops of pure ox gall. To be sure of getting the genuine ox gall, be sure of getting Dioxol. They cost less than 2c each at good drug stores.

Albany Found To Be Locale Of Arms Plot

OAKLAND, Nov. 17.—Seizure of thousands of rounds of ammunition, machine gun, rifle, pistol, shotgun, hand grenades, T. N. T., dynamite and other high explosives was effected today when police and county inspectors raided a house in Albany.

The raid was made on information from police of Chicago, Cleveland and Kent, Ohio, that gangsters, rum runners and blackjacks were being equipped with machine guns and imported rifles and pistols from Albany.

John Mannerstein, associated with the Pacific Arms Corporation of San Francisco and under federal indictment for conspiracy to run arms in Mexico, is the occupant of the house, raiders said. He will be arrested and prosecuted under the new California statute making possession of a machine gun a felony.

Gas fuel keeps your city clean

A clean fuel means sunnier,
brighter days

People who use gas fuel help keep their city clean.

For gas gives off no smoke or by-products that hide the sun's rays. The air remains pure. The sun shines brightly.

And why is gas so clean?

Because we "launder" the gas before it's sent to you. The gas goes through purifiers. It is cleaned in mechanical "scrubbers." Only pure gas that burns clean passes into the pipes that lead to your home. And gas is all fuel.

For cleaner, sunnier and healthier cities use gas for cooking, water-heating and house heating.

HARD SLUGGERS MEET TONIGHT AT EL CERRITO

Two of the best known middleweights in California—Gene Cline of Fresno and "Chick" Roach of Vallejo clash in the 10 round main event tonight at the El Cerrito Athletic Club.

What Matchmaker Bill Donahue terms "one of the best fight cards in the world," Roach recently returned from southern California where he won 13 straight starts by decisive margins.

During the past two months, Cline has been fighting in valley rings, winning from some of the best middle and light heavyweights. Roach, has always been a boring in type of fighter, has been going great since he left for southern climes, while Cline holds a decision over Jimmy Duffy and a draw with Pete Meyers.

In signing for tonight's match, both main events agreed to make a slugging match out of it. As both boys pack hefty wallop in either hand, one of the two is due to be flattened before the fray is over. Roach is said to have developed a hefty punch in his right mitt and the customers are looking for the unexpected.

Johnny Gomez, the slugging El Cerrito lightweight, meets Johnny Lawson of Oakland in the four-round semi-windup. Gomez is a clever boxer and packs a wallop, while Lawson is not much of a puncher, depending on his boxing ability to carry him through. Gomez is the favorite in this bout.

Four round brawls complete the card. Joe Viera, Oakland featherweight, and Sammy Alcazar of Stockton mix things in the four round special event with Manuel Vasquez of San Pablo clashing with Charley Actis. Richmond junior welterweight in another four rounder.

Billy Limer, Oakland bantamweight meets Emil Cabrella of Stockton, while Tommy Garcia, Richmond lightweight, and Lawrence Guiffre of El Cerrito box the housewarmer. Eddie White will referee.

Card Advantage Discounted By Those In Know As Hour For Big Game Draws Near

(By Universal Service)

An even break was predicted yesterday by four men who know Big Game signs. On the word of four who have played, and played well, odds that are mentioned on Cards and Bears mean less than nothing at all.

Two of the four are old Bears themselves, and two are Stanford Reds. Cort Majors, wonder team captain, and Harold "Brick" Muller, probably the greatest end in the world, who know all the angles involved, assured California enthusiasts at a Fairmont Hotel gathering yesterday that Golden Bear possibilities for victory tomorrow are practically as good as the same hour.

Within the Cards, Halfback George Bogue, whose punch was a big factor in Stanford's championship team last season, and former Captain Jack Patrick, whose eleven made the Red's one touchdown in a four-year period of competition with wonder teams, warned followers of Glenn Warner's men that Stanford holds little, if any real edge over the Bears. They gave the impression that they were stretching a point to award Stanford an even break.

All four mentioned a possible Stanford advantage in experience, which is followed by a probable advantage in organization, and all four promptly forgot this same edge, basing entire forecasts of results on the fight, the spirit, the breaks, and psychology of the game as it will be played tomorrow.

And there is the Big Game "dope." A possible edge for the Reds in experienced team organization, but only an advantage that may be discounted by four more important and intangible factors the turn of which no one can tell in advance.

Coach Price and Coach Warner broke silence yesterday to name their starting teams. Both were much as expected though Price has made changes at guards to bring greater weight into his line.

Those who have won the honor of starting the season's greatest games are those whose names follow:

California	Pos.	Stanford
Dougery	LER	T. Harder
Green	LTR	C. Freeman
Koch	LGR	D. Robesky
Riegels	C. Capt.	McCreery
Schwartz	RGL	S. Post
Coltrin	RTL	R. Sellman
Phillips	REL	J. Preston
Evans	Q.	M. Murphy
Lom	LHR	D. Hill
Newmar	RHL	D. Hydan
Dougery	F.	B. Hoffman

The official lineups add little in the way of information which might lead to forecast of a winner. Don Koch and Bert Schwarz at guards, California's average line weight is brought to 191 pounds, nine pounds per man more than the seven men of the Cards forward wall named above will register.

In the backfield too the Bears will have the advantage in weight averaging 175 pounds against Stanford's 171.

Two more opinions may be added to the general fund of information. "Chick" Carroll and Louis Tesreau, questioned at the Washington California battle as to their impression of relative Card and Bear strength, gave this answer: That most Washington players felt that in another game with Stanford they could win, while in another game with California they would not be as confident.

And one friendly pool including 33 newspaper men, each allowed to pick his own winner, found 17 naming Stanford, 13 selecting California, and three choosing to scores. Which, it would seem, offers as fair an estimate of odds among the fans as any, 17 to 13. On the manner in which "Nibs" Price has organized his starting team, with great weight in the line, and with the backfield, which is regarded as his greatest defensive unit, it would appear that California is basing much on an effort to hold the Cards at the start.

The plan may be to kick a every opportunity to check the Stanford offense, and at the first break or opportunity for scoring sending in one of the backfields which pushed down to the Washington goal line.

The Stanford plan will be the usual Warner plan—take the football and go somewhere with it. Thus the two eleven's will probably meet each other at each other's game, California set to hold at the start, Stanford set to go.

There are no significant changes in the Glenn Warner starting machine. Mike Murphy, as announced previously, has won himself field general. At positions candidates for which are nearly equal, namely the two half-back posts, the veterans Don Hill and Dick Hyland are given the call.

The 154 pound "Tricky Dick" was the brightest star of the last Big Game, going 55 yards to a touchdown on Stanford's first play, and constantly bringing the crowd to its feet with "Red" Grange performances in general. Dick in his all round game is now better than last season and many believe that tomorrow one of California's big problems will be in stopping Hyland.

However, in California's case, it is not a question of stopping the man, but of stopping the play. Frank Wilton, who is on a plane with "Tricky Dick," is played left half if Hyland is stopped, and Bob Sims, who is as good as Hill, can play right half if Hill is stopped.

But if the plays are stopped, no one of the four will gain. In the case of light speedy half-backs, such as are all of Stanford's four, the problem is to get them through the line, which is the team's business more than the half carrier's.

Stanford, too, has much more to stop than the Bears who will first take the field. The Evans, Lom, Newman, Dougery combination, when not playing the kicking game, will use a power and passing attack.

But the sharpest California offense will materialize later, when some combination including the strong, fast "Brick" Marcus is sent in as the proper opportunity arrives.

Coach "Nibs" Price has so many backfield men of near equal caliber that it is impossible to pick the best offensive combination, but almost certain it is that Marcus will be a member of that combination. The other three men may be Evans, Clymer, Dougery, Eisan, "Red" Gill and Barr; or most any set of the Bear ball carriers.

Stanley Barr, the triple threat with the line punch who landed as inch from the Washington goal on a third down at the end of the second period last Saturday, is certain to get his crack at Stanford tomorrow, and the crowd which saw him Saturday will be watching for him.

McRacken's Team Scores Over Malik 5

W. J. McRacken's team carried a brand of basketball last night that beat the Ben Malik team—for the first time this season, by a margin of ten points, the score being 30 to 20. The Santa Fe team succumbed to La Moine's Druggists by a score of 24 to 18. Daley the La Moine forward scoring 14 points, as his evening's work.

The McRacken-Malik game was full of fight, in fact so much fur flew, that referee Alvin Kyte, was red in the face calling fouls. When Malik man couldn't get by a McRacken boy, he went over the top of him, such tactics resulting in more than one spill. Bowman of McRacken, scored eight points, two of them foul shots, while his team-mate, Sanders, scored nine. Chattanooga of the Ben Malik team contributed ten of their points, while Gadbury, shot three baskets.

Daley, La Moine forward, played a basketball game of his own, scoring 14 points of the 24, which beat the Santa Fe team. Morrison forward of the druggists, scored 4 as did Schroeder, center. Villalobos, Santa Fe forward, scored 9 points.

The lineups for the night's play were: Ben Malik — Chattanooga, Peters, Hutton, forwards; Gadberry, center; Paasch, McLaughlin, Vargas and Campbell, guards; McRacken—Wilson, Tooley, Sanders and Bowman, forwards; Kamb and Johnson, centers; Grey, Baldwin, Thust, guards.

La Moine team — Daley, Morrison and Brian, forwards; Schroeder and Taining, centers; McAllister, Schroeder, Moore, guards; Santa Fe—Bowen, Grandt, Tenelin and Villalobos forwards; Torrence and Arthurs, centers; C. Bowen, Tula, Newman and Gualdini, guards.

HI-Y DEFEATS PINOLE TEAM

The Hi-Y team beat out the Pinole team last night in the boys' basketball league, at the Roosevelt Junior high school gym the score being 13 to 9.

Morrison, guard of the Hi-Y, scored six points, while his teammates Spires and Fenix scored one basket apiece. Theis scored twice. For the Pinole team Purcell scored four point, while Marcos made three and Caswell two.

Lineups of the teams were: Hi-Y, Spines and Theis, forwards; Fenix, center; Brusie, Ferguson and Morrison, guards.

Pinole: Marcos, and Purcell, forwards; Poinsett, center; Caswell, Gerrish, and Curran, guards.

JACK SHARKEY'S OPINION OF TUNNEY

Jack Sharkey poked no little fun at Gene Tunney while he was in Chicago, prior to the Dempsey-Tunney fight.

It seemed that Sharkey visited Tunney's camp near Antioch, Ill., on a particularly scorching day. If you were in Chicago at that time you will recall that even Lake Michigan was perspiring.

"How do you feel, Gene?" Sharkey asked Tunney when he met him.

Tunney registered ennui. "I find the heat on the terrace insufferable," was his comeback.

For some reason or other that dignified reply amused Sharkey mightily. "If I didn't come from the city of culture, I'd knock his high hat off," said Sharkey to intimate.

Whether or not Sharkey could even hit Tunney's hat if Tunney entered the ring as yet had a something that cannot be settled here. Admiration of Tunney say that Sharkey would need a pole to touch Tunney, if Tunney felt like out-boxing him.

However if Chicago, Sharkey was contemptuous of Tunney and his ability and his lingo. If he could carry that same confidence into the ring with him against Tunney, it would aid him in a championship.

Tonight Sharkey gets his chance to win the right to meet Tunney. Sharkey, tonight meets Tom Heeney of New Zealand, and the winner of this one will stand out as a challenger for the heavyweight championship.

DEMPEY RUINED HIM!
This will be the first time that the linguistic Sharkey has fought since the night he met Dempsey.

On that night Sharkey was way out in front when he turned to the referee and asked him for a light or a telephone number or something.

It remains to be seen whether the body punching Sharkey received in that fight was sufficient to ruin him.

I asked Dempsey that question, and he smiled: "Those chugs to the body do more damage than you think, but Sharkey is young, and he has had a long rest. I don't think they will have a lasting effect on him."

It is the long rest, that long layoff from the ring, that adds to the speculation over Sharkey's chance.

The Boston heavyweight did his best fighting when he was scrapping regularly. Heeney has been fighting more regularly than any of the heavyweights. In that Sharkey will find himself at a disadvantage.

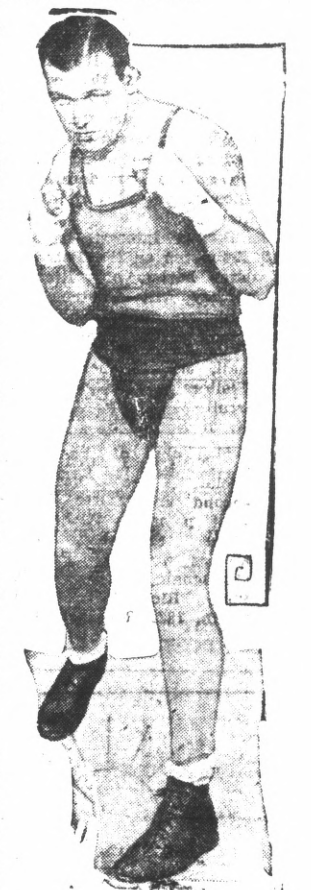

Sharkey and Heeney will meet over the twelve-round route, which should be lengthy enough to bring about a definite result. It would have been better had they fought fifteen rounds, but I understand that Sharkey out of the ring for months, preferred twelve. This may be a rumor—I do not know.

The best fight which Heeney put up around New York was at fifteen rounds.

It was his return fight with Paulino. Paulino got off to a fast start, but from the ninth round on to the fifteenth, Heeney swept on like a thoroughbred. He apparently likes a route.

Heeney is of stout courage, and although his chunky stature and short arms will disadvantage him against the rangy, powerful Sharkey, the New Zealander's ability to take it must be recognized in any preview.

Paulino hit Heeney with plenty of solid pokes to the body, but could never stop the New Zealander's forward drive. Johnny Risko of Cleveland, won four of the first five rounds from Heeney at Detroit, but Heeney persisted and won.

GIRLS QUINTET OPENS SEASON

Monday night promises to be busy on the basket ball floor of Roosevelt Junior high school gym. Four games are scheduled for that night.

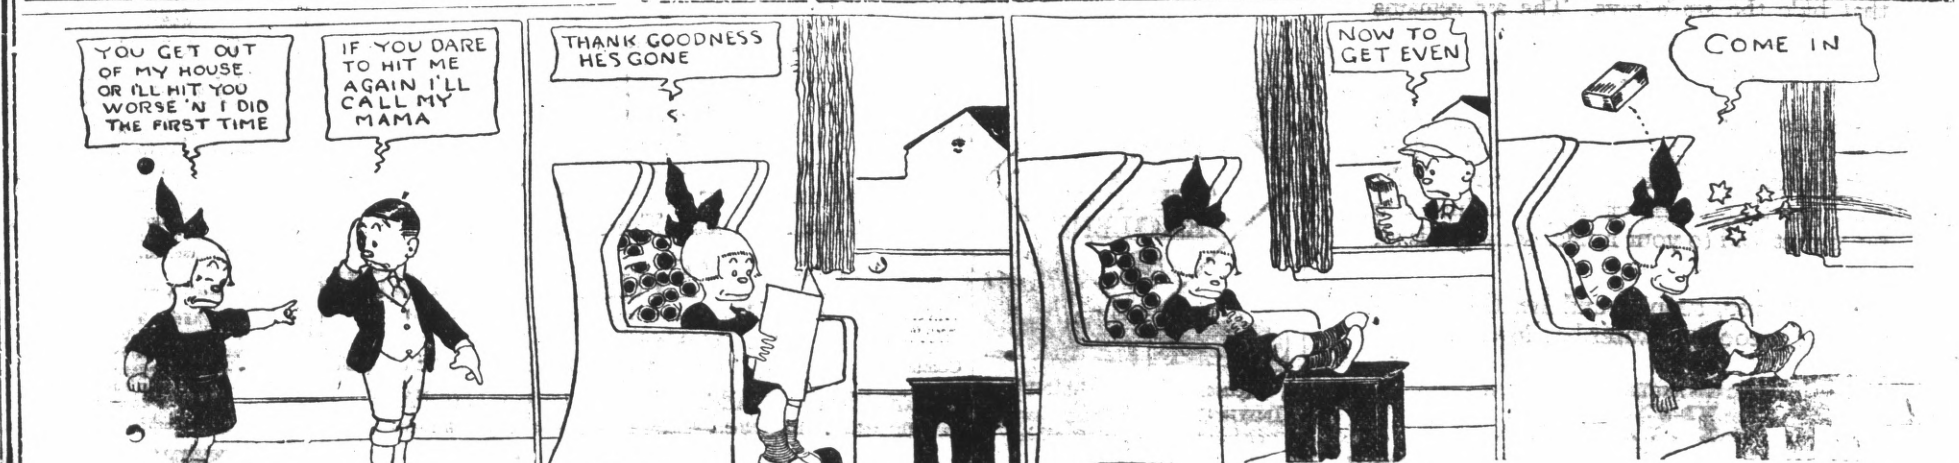

The feature of the evening will be the game between the Richmond Girls' team, formerly the Young Ladies' Institute, and the Emporium team of San Francisco. This will be the first game of the 1927 season for the local girls and they are anxious to show their best.

Last year in one of the most exciting girls' games on the Roosevelt floor, the Emporium defeated the local team. With a strengthened lineup and several weeks of practice the Richmond girls feel confident of a victory.

LOST AND FOUND

LOST—YOUNG BLACK AND white fox terrier. Has collar on. Child's pet. Phone 11-17-27.

SNAP IN GOLD STOCKS

I have a snap in gold mining stocks to offer, the like of which I never had before and never expect to have again. In $100 lots, at easy monthly payments, at a price that is far below value. My judgment is that it will bring a profit of 1,000 percent or more in reasonably short time. I have invested $1,000 in it personally and would have taken more if I could have afforded it. Owner is in a jam and must raise money. For particulars call on or address F. J. HULANISKI, 6th and Macdonald, Richmond 11-16-27.

AILMENTS OF THE HEART QUICKLY RELIEVED

Taft, Calif. April 19, 1927. Fong Wan Herb Co., Oakland, Calif.
Gentlemen,
I suffered from Leakage of the Heart, Enlargement, Pain and High Blood Pressure. The pain extended to my back and left arm. I tried many local physicians, but found no relief at all.

After I had seen your advertisement about overcoming Heart Trouble I decided to write to you for herbs. Your Herb treatment is indeed wonderful. When I had finished taking a four-week supply of the herbs, all my pain had left me.

You deserve unstinted praise for what you have done for me. I shall continue to take the herbs until I am certain that I have completely recovered and am sound and healthy in every respect.

Yours very truly,
EDWARD CHONK.

SCOUT CAMP IN HIGH SIERRAS IS CONSIDERED

Contra Costa Boy Scout officials have returned from Stockton following an investigation of possible mountain camp sites for Contra Costa Boy Scouts and consideration of a proposal that the Contra Costa and San Joaquin Councils join in using the same camp next year. Camp sites in the vicinity of the Mariposa big trees are being considered.

The Scouts now have available a camp in Mitchell Canyon, near Mt. Diablo, but the tenure is uncertain so a permanent mountain camp is being sought. At Stockton the Contra Costa Scouts officials conferred with executives of the Rotary Club, Stockton municipal camp directors, Y. W. C. A. camp executives and Scout officials.

In seeking a suitable mountain camp for Scouts the Contra Costa officials are also endeavoring to select a site that will be available for use by girls' organizations.

The officials who made the trip to Stockton were Fire Chief W. P. Cooper of Richmond, T. B. Swift and Scout Executive J. R. Warner of Martinez, and Otis Lovridge and George Murray of Pittsburg.
